5.0 Notice of Questions

5.1 Submitted by Councillor Gerry O'Connor

"Can Meath County Council confirm that it will liaise with Uisce Éireann to ensure that there is an adequate supply of safe, clean water to meet the needs of existing housing in Dunshaughlin and to support the capacity required for future housing development?"

5.2 Submitted by Councillor Caroline O'Reilly

"Can Meath County Council provide an update on the taking in charge of Hanson Wood, Dunshaughlin, and Clooneen, Kilcloon, outlining the current status of each estate, any outstanding works or other matters delaying the process, and the anticipated timeframe for taking each estate in charge?"

6.0 Notice of Motions

6.1 Submitted by Councillor Caroline O'Reilly

"That Meath County Council provide a bus shelter at the top of Porterstown Lane on the Dunshaughlin Road. New bus stop poles have recently been installed, but passengers remain exposed to wind and rain while waiting. A simple shelter, similar to those in Kiltale, is urgently needed, with consideration given to a design that does not require an electricity connection".

6.2 Submitted by Councillor Caroline O'Reilly

"That Meath County Council progress and complete the taking in charge of Stokestown Estate, Clonee, Dunboyne, following the agreement recorded at the Area Meeting of 9th February 2004 and confirmed in Council correspondence; review the historic records to establish the estate's current status; and provide members and residents with a report identifying any outstanding road, drainage or administrative requirements, together with the funding required and a clear timeframe for resolving this longstanding matter".

6.3 Submitted by Councillor Fionnan Blake

"To call on Meath County Council to facilitate the pedestrian and cycling movement between College Park and the Knocks, Dunshaughlin area"

7.0 Correspondence

8.0 Any Other Business
