Historic Homes and Enchanted Gardens...

In Ards you'll find Mount Stewart, the historic home of the Londonderry family since the late 18th century; on the shores of Strangford Lough stands Castleward, one of Europe's most unusual houses.

Knockabbey Castle and Gardens in Louth village have been one of Ireland's best kept secrets! Oxford Island is a haven for wildlife and a popular visitor attraction. You'll be spoilt for choice if looking to experience the region's more untouched gardens and forest parks such as Tollymore, Castlewellan, Gosford, Kilbroney, Rossmore and Slieve Gullion. Explore our natural environment in areas such as Strangford or where the Mountains of Mourne sweep down to the sea at Newcastle

A Natural Wonderland...

There are superb parkland and links golf courses like Ireland's finest, Royal County Down and the world famous links golf courses at Baltray and Seapoint. Enjoy fine fishing from the great Loughs like Muckno in Co Monaghan and Neagh, to Newry Canal and Loughross in South Armagh and at the Bann river near Banbridge. Magnificent mountain scenery and ancient forests make the region a haven for walkers and you can even try horse riding over golden stretches of beach!

Whether in state-of-the-art marinas like Bangor or Kinnego or along beautiful Loughs like Strangford, Neagh, Muckno and Carlingford, you'll find a wide array of top class sailing clubs or even try your hand at water-skiing, powerboating and yachting!

An Absorbing History...

Visit the Georgian city of Armagh with its two cathedrals dominating the skyline, Downpatrick the burial place of our patron saint St Patrick or historic Drogheda where you can see the embalmed head of Saint Oliver Plunkett. Visit the ancestral home of the world famous Bronte sisters in Banbridge or the Patrick Kavanagh Rural and Literary Resource Centre in Inniskeen.

At the Ulster Folk and Transport Museum at Cultra take a stroll through yesteryear. Built in the 16th century, Bagenal's Castle is Newry's oldest surviving building. Newgrange, built 3300-2900 BC, is 500 years older than the Great Pyramid of Giza in Egypt and at the legendary Hill of Tara Irish myth, legend and history are one!
