- 6.2. A written consent granted by the Council to do any of the acts or things hereinbefore enumerated in these bye-laws:-
- 6.2.1. Shall not relieve from personal responsibility or liability any person or persons to whom such permission was granted in respect of any criminal, unlawful, illegal or negligent act or omission for which such person or persons may at any time be sued or charged.
- 6.2.2. Shall in no way be deemed to implicate or involve the Council, its officers or employees in any liability or responsibility in respect of any criminal, unlawful, illegal, wrongful or negligent act or omission done by any person or persons to whom such permission was granted or by their servants or agents.
- 6.2.3. May be limited to such part or parts of Foreshore as the Council may from time to time direct.
- 6.2.4. May be granted subject to conditions as the Council shall deem appropriate which may include the payment of a fee.
- 6.2.5. Shall be valid, where not limited to a shorter period, for a period of six months from the date it is granted, unless revoked in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained after which period it shall, unless an extension be granted in writing, cease to be of any effect.
- 6.2.6. If granted, shall be in writing and signed by an Authorised Person and any person having obtained such consent shall whenever requested to do so by an Authorised Person or an officer or employee of the Council or by any member of the Garda Siochana, produce for inspection such written consent.
- 6.2.7. The Council may refuse to grant a consent to any person to do any of the acts or things enumerated in this bye law and may by notice in writing revoke, alter, amend or limit the terms of such consent whenever such person, his servants or agents has or have in the opinion of the Council committed a breach of any of these bye-laws or in any way abused the consent so granted in such a manner as to be likely to cause a breach of any of these bye-laws.
- 6.2.8. Written Notice sent by prepaid ordinary post to the last known address of the person affected by such revocation, alteration, amendment or limitation shall be deemed to be sufficient notice thereof to such person and shall be deemed to have been received by such person when the notice would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

7. Enforcement of bye-laws

- 7.1. It shall be lawful for a member of the Garda Siochana or an Authorised Person to enforce these bye-laws and to exclude or remove from any part of the beach any person committing any breach of the above bye-laws and to take such other steps as authorised by law.
- 7.2. A person who contravenes a provision of these bye-laws shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €1,270.
- 7.3. If a contravention of a provision of these bye-laws is continued after conviction, the person causing the contravention shall be guilty of a further offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €125 per day.
- 7.4. A person who obstructs or impedes or refuses to comply with a request of a member of the Garda Siochana or of an Authorised Person acting in the exercise of the functions conferred on an Authorised Person by these bye-laws shall be guilty of an offence.
- 7.5. Where an Authorised Person or a member of the Garda Siochana is of the opinion that a person is committing or has committed an offence to which the bye-laws relate, the Garda or the Authorised Person as the case may be, may demand the name and address of such person and if this demand is refused or the person gives a name or address which is false or misleading, the person shall be guilty of an offence.
- 7.6. Where a member of the Garda Siochana is of the opinion that a person is committing or has committed an offence to which these bye-laws relate, that member may arrest the person without warrant.
- 7.7. An offence under these bye-laws may be prosecuted by the Council, by any other local authority acting on its behalf or by a member of the Garda Siochana.
- 7.8. Stranded or abandoned vehicles on the Foreshore may be subject to a recovery or removal fee by the Council
- 7.9. The Council may issue a person that contravenes any provision of these bye-laws with a Fixed Penalty Notice specifying that if an amount of €75 is paid within 21 days of the date on which the Notice was issued, the Council shall not proceed with a prosecution. Notice of the fixed payment shall be in the general form of the notice in the First Schedule to these Bye-Laws.

8. General Provisions

- 8.1. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent fishermen or boatmen exercising their respective callings or fishermen from selling fish on the seashore or the holding of the annual Horse Racing on Laytown beach subject to such Statutory or other lawful Regulations as now are or for the time being shall be in force concerning same.
- 8.2. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the lawful operation by Drogheda Port Company of its Statutory functions.

- 8.3. Nothing in or done under any of the provisions of the foregoing bye-laws shall, or shall be deemed to operate as a grant by or on behalf of the State of any estate or interest in or right over the Foreshore or any part thereof nor shall anything contained in or done under any of the provisions of the foregoing bye-laws prejudice or injuriously affect the rights and interests of the State in such Foreshores.
9. These Bye-Laws are in substitution for County Meath Foreshore Bye-Laws 2002 which are hereby revoked from the date of commencement hereof.
