

Appendix I                      Project stakeholders

The Project Steering Committee identified the following groups/organisations/interested parties as the main stakeholders:

- Local residents, businesses, community groups and NGOs
- Elected representatives
- Meath County Council – All relevant Departments
- Prescribed bodies under the Planning and Development Act 2000
- Farmers and Farming Representative bodies
- Heritage Council
- Department of Environment, Heritage and Local Government
- Office of Public Works
- Schools and Navan Education Centre
- Meath County Heritage Forum
- Academics – Tara Research Community
- Teagasc
- Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food
- Meath Tourism and Failte Ireland
- Meath Partnership
- National Landscape Strategy Steering Committee
- National Roads Authority
- Fisheries Board
- Environmental Protection Agency
- Eastern River Basin District
- County Development Board
- County Enterprise Board
- Meath Community Forum and Community and Voluntary Steering Group
- Local and national media
- Local sporting and recreational clubs
- National Trails Office (Sports Council)
- Comhairle na Tuaithe
- National Museum of Ireland
- National Library
- Institute of Archaeologists of Ireland (IAI)
- ICOMOS Ireland
- Royal Irish Academy
- Royal Society of Antiquarians of Ireland
- Meath Local Sports Partnership
- Irish Landscape Institute
- Landscape Forum Ireland/Landscape Alliance Ireland
- Irish Planning Institute, RIAI, RTPI
- International Landscape Partners – English Heritage, Landscape Observatory of Catalonia,
- COMHAR - the forum for national consultation and dialogue on all issues relating to sustainable development.
- National Archives
- National Biodiversity Data Centre