(Form RF 100 is used if the vehicle is new and can be obtained from your garage or if the vehicle is imported you will obtain it from the National Car Testing Service)
- or
- Form RF 100A (Motor Tax Renewal Form) completed
(Form RF 100A is used if it is your first time taxing the vehicle upon a change of ownership to your name)
- or
- Form RF111 (Change of Particulars) completed
(Form RF111 is used if details relating to you or your vehicle have changed since the vehicle was taxed last)
- Completed Goods Only Declaration Form RF111A – stamped and witnessed by An Garda Síochána
- Original Certificate of Insurance Submitted
- Insurance Certificate must state that the vehicle is covered for commercial / business use in the course of the registered owners trade or business
- The name stated on the Insurance Certificate should match the name of the registered owner as stated on the National Vehicle and Driver File (N.V.D.F.) record / Vehicle Registration Certificate
- Weight Docket from an Authorised Weighbridge Submitted (if applicable)
(Please refer to point 4 of the web-page that directed you to this document, which details when a Weight docket is required).
- Vehicle Registration Certificate submitted with your motor taxation application (not applicable when registering a vehicle for the first time using motor taxation form RF100 – in which case please write N/A in box).

Important Notes:

The name on the insurance certificate should correspond with the name of the registered owner of the vehicle as it appears on the National Vehicle and Driver File record / Vehicle Registration Certificate. If they do not correspond it may not be possible to process your application.

If you have indicated No in any of the boxes it may not be possible to tax your vehicle at the concessionary rate (goods rate) in which case you should consider taxing your vehicle at the Private motor taxation rate

Please also note that the Motor Taxation Office, in its absolute discretion, may require additional information.
