5 Notice of Question

6 Notice of Motion

6.1 Submitted by Councillor Elaine McGinty

“To ask Meath County Council to consider providing pop up ‘cycle lanes’ by using cycle symbol on hard shoulders where roadway width permits. This would be on a trial basis in South Drogheda and East Meath district. In light of the ongoing travel restrictions imposed by COVID 19, funding availability from the NTA to provide cycle lanes in support of more active travel measures, this has the potential to be a cost effective and timely solution. The initiative would also support the councils own work in securing 'Greenway's across the County. This could be a wonderful and visible short-term solution to making roads around East Meath more cycle/pedestrian friendly. If successful, it could then be rolled out across the County."

6.2 Submitted by Councillor Sharon Tolan

"To call on Meath County Council to secure possession of the 22 acres of land zoned F1 Open Space at the Town Centre in Bettystown, in order to assist local Sporting Clubs and community organisations to realise the development of said lands as a sporting facility, and to begin the process of delivering the Community Centre funded for in the Capital Plan for East Meath."
