NOTES TO FORM RFA 5

Application for inclusion in the Supplement to the Register of Electors by a person already registered who becomes an Irish citizen.

1. A person who becomes an Irish citizen, who is not already on the register of electors, and who wishes to apply to be included in the supplement to the register of electors, should complete form RFA2.
2. The purpose of this form (RFA 5) is to facilitate voters who are already on the register of local, European or Dáil electors who have become Irish citizens and wish to be included in the supplement to the register of electors so that they can also vote at Dáil and presidential elections, and referendums.

While there are no restrictions on when the form may be completed and sent to the registration authority, only those forms received before the 14th day before polling day (excluding Sundays, Public Holidays and Good Friday) at an election or referendum, may be considered for entry onto the supplement for that poll. Late applications will not be processed until after polling day.

3. A person who is on the register of local electors or the register of European electors, or a British citizen who is on the register of Dáil electors, who becomes an Irish citizen can apply for entry to the supplement as an Irish citizen, even if they become an Irish citizen after the qualifying date for the register of electors.
4. A separate form must be completed and signed by each person applying for inclusion in the supplement. To avoid delay in processing your application, make sure to complete it fully and return it by post or deliver it to the appropriate City, County or City and County Council - that is the Council on whose register of electors you are currently listed.
5. Evidence of Irish Citizenship

To assist the registration authority in processing your application, please attach evidence of your Irish citizenship, for example a copy of your Certificate of Naturalisation or of the relevant page in your Irish passport.

6. Eircode

Eircode is the national postcode system for Ireland and comprises a unique 7-digit postcode which has been allocated to every address in Ireland.

7. Address

If your current address is different to the address at which you are currently registered to vote you should provide your current address and also your previous address to allow the registration authority to accurately reflect your application on the register of electors – that is to delete the current entry and to include the correct information in the supplement.

8. Edited Register - Two versions of the Register

Registration authorities are required to publish two versions of the Register - the full register and the edited register. The full Register lists everyone who is entitled to vote and can only be used for an electoral or other statutory purpose.

The edited register contains the names and addresses of persons whose details can be used for a purpose other than an electoral or other statutory purpose e.g. for direct marketing use by a commercial or other organisation. If you do not want your details to be included on the edited register, you should tick (✓) the opt out box at section 6 of the form. If you want your registration details to be included (i.e. available for non-statutory uses), you should leave the opt out box blank.

9. Declaration/Certificate of Identity

(a) The declaration at section 6 of the application form must be signed in the presence of a member of the Garda Síochána from your local Garda station. If the Garda is satisfied as to your identity, he or she will sign, date and stamp section 7(a) of the form. If necessary, photographic identification may be required and you should be able to present such identification and other supporting identification to assist the Garda.

- (b) If you are unable to proceed as at (a) above, the form may be witnessed at the offices of the registration authority and in such cases section 7(b) of the form must be completed. You must state, in writing, why the form could not be completed by a member of the Garda Síochána from your local Garda Station. Photographic identification and other supporting identification documentation should be brought to the registration authority.
 - (c) If you are unable to proceed as at (a) or (b) above due to physical illness or physical disability you must have section 7(c) of the form completed by a medical practitioner.
- 10. You will be notified as quickly as possible of the ruling on your application. Where your application is refused, you will have the right to appeal against the ruling to the county registrar. The supplement will be published in the period immediately before the polling day at an election or referendum.
- 11. Your contact details are being sought in case the registration authority needs to contact you to clarify any details of the application.
- 12. It is an offence to fail to give the registration authority or county registrar any information required for the purpose of their duties or to knowingly give false information.
