Clár / Meeting Agenda

6.2 Submitted by Councillor Edward Fennessy

"The organising committee of the Navan Pride Festival 2023 (June 26th - July 2nd) would like the Executive to support their event by placing rainbow flags and bunting at key locations around the town. And, similar to the Christmas initiative, to provide projected lighting on the Solstice Arts Centre and a light show on the River Boyne."

6.3 Submitted by Councillor Francis Deane

"I call on Meath County Council to consider adding extra categories to the Pride of Place competition for 2023, for example, prizes for best shop front, painting scheme, rear/front gardens in small housing estates, historical monuments, etc. in order to generate more participation/interest by local residents and community groups."

6.4 Submitted by Councillor Francis Deane

"I propose that Meath County Council would write to Bus Éireann asking to extend the town bus service to Old Johnstown village, from Metges Road, via Kilcarn Rd, via Johnstown Village to L5050 Chapel Road to Casey's Cross onto R153 Kentstown Road to Navan Town."

6.5 Submitted by Councillor Tommy Reilly

"I call on Meath County Council to arrange the transfer of community lands at Liscarton, Navan, Co. Meath back to the community to be used, inter-alia, as a centre of excellence by the Meath LGFA and also to be used for other sporting/recreational purposes, in line with similar cow plots which have been allocated throughout the county."

6.6 Submitted by Councillor Tommy Reilly

"To call on Meath County Council to acquire four vacant properties in Johnstown Village to restore them to habitable properties following the announcement of €150 million for these projects."
