

SPRING 2023 MEATH ARTS OFFICE NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the Meath County Council Arts Office Spring newsletter.

The Arts Office is delighted to welcome Assistant Arts Officer, Aisling O'Brien to the Arts Office team. We were also pleased to announce the launch earlier this month of the Arts Office Spring 2023 Funding Cycle which sees five individual grant and bursary competitions: The Annual Arts Grant, the Community Arts Grant, the Festivals Grant Scheme, the Drama League of Ireland Bursary and The Professional Artists Development Fund.

Supports which this year have been strengthened by additional funding received from the Arts Council of Ireland and Creative Ireland. The Spring Funding Cycle aims to cover a wide range of disciplines, arts practices, and activities.

The Meath Arts Office entire application process is online, and we invite applicants to complete forms electronically and submit applications and support materials digitally.

Information on open schemes and the online application process can be found here.

The deadline for receipt of applications is 1pm Friday 5th May 2023.

Good luck, we look forward to supporting your arts practice!

Gerardette Bailey,

Meath County Council Arts Officer

Boyne Music Festival 27th - 30th July 2023

The Boyne Music Festival is gearing up to celebrate 10 years of internationally acclaimed music making and artistry this summer with concerts, poetry, walks, workshops and more from 27th - 30th of July, featuring artists including Robert Cohen (cello), Mia Cooper (violin), Zoë Conway (violin), Anna Devin (soprano) and Alex Petcu (percussion).

Founded by twin sisters Julie-Anne and Aisling Manning and their cousin Deirdre Brenner, the Boyne Music Festival has been bringing high quality artistic programming to the Boyne Valley for the past ten years.

"We're thrilled to mark this significant milestone with an exciting weekend of events celebrating the place we call home." (Deirdre Brenner, Festival Director)

To kick things off BMF are hosting a morning workshop for amateur chamber music ensembles led by Boyne Music Festival artists at Townley Hall on Wednesday 26th July before officially opening the festival with a concert in the ballroom of Slane Castle at 8pm on Thursday 27th July. This concert is preceded by a 10th anniversary celebratory dinner in the beautiful surrounds of the castle, a wonderful opportunity to experience local cuisine while also marking this exciting milestone with other festival guests.

On Friday 28th July the festival returns to its spiritual home at Townley Hall for an exciting evening of classical, contemporary and traditional music by Irish composers. The concert is preceded by a special event for BMF Friends including a tour of Townley Hall and an opportunity to meet the artists.

For younger audiences, there will be a children's workshop and family concert at St Peter's Church, Drogheda, on Saturday 29th July. Led by the captivating clarinettist, Jessie Grimes, these events are sure to entertain and excite children and adults alike.

Classical music enthusiasts will be treated to well-loved repertoire from Beethoven, Saint-Saëns and Holst, as well as contemporary music from Kevin Puts and Osvaldo Golijov in concerts on Saturday 29th at 8pm at St Peter's Church, Drogheda, and Sunday 30th at 5pm to close the festival at Townley Hall.

Tickets will be on sale via www.boynemusicfestival.com from 18th April 2023.

Full programme details can be found on the website. For more programme information please contact +353 (0) 83 803 9344
