The Competition

The Position

Meath County Council invites applications from suitably qualified persons who wish to be considered for inclusion on a panel from which permanent and fixed-term contract vacancies for the position of Foreman shall be drawn.

This competition will create six panels, one for each Municipal District, from which vacancies for the position of Foreman will be filled. In making an application, candidates will be asked to indicate which Municipal District they wish to be considered for (candidates can indicate a preference for up to 2 Municipal Districts).

Municipal Districts
Ashbourne
Kells
Laytown - Bettystown
Navan
Ratoath
Trim

The Foreman position may be assigned to any area as required at the discretion of Meath County Council. The successful candidate shall report to the General Services Supervisor and Supervising Engineer or other appropriate person as determined by the Council from time to time.

Purpose, Duties and Responsibilities

The Foreman shall arrange, under the direction of the General Services Supervisor and Supervising Engineer or other appropriate person, the efficient execution of all works in their area of charge and discharge all other duties related to their work including those set out below, ensuring all targets are met on an ongoing basis. The post holder will also be responsible for ensuring Health and Safety compliance is maintained to high standard in the carrying out of any associated works for the role.

The Foreman role is that of a working foreman, and the post holder shall undertake general operative duties as part of the crew and shall lead the crew in their work.

The duties of the post of the Foreman include, but are not limited to:

- The management of health, safety and welfare issues on the site, including completion and induction to staff of SSWP forms, toolbox talks, the use of electronic systems such as Prowork and Flex, the implementation of temporary traffic management and any other Health and Safety procedures that are currently in place or that may be put in place in the future.
- Supervision of crews and general operative staff in the areas of roads, housing, burial grounds, parks or any other department/area as required by the Council.
- To direct, supervise and manage a team of staff that may be assigned by the Line Manager. Duties will include ensuring a high quality of works, maintaining standards of discipline, monitoring competence (training), motivation of staff, implementing and monitoring safety measures, and monitoring and recording timekeeping.
- Management, supervision and implementation of Temporary Traffic Management as per the Temporary Traffic Management Guidelines. Complete training to achieve a CSCS Signing, Lighting and Guarding card. Create electronic temporary traffic management plans and associated documents, if requested by the line manager.
- Ensure the proper use by all workers under their supervision of any personal protective clothing & equipment and adherence by them of all appropriate Health & Safety procedures.
- Have a good technical aptitude and the ability to use a range of hand, mechanical and electrical tools/equipment.
- To advise the relevant supervisor of anticipated shortages of materials and tools and use correct ordering procedures.
- Regularly inspect Council assets and ensure a satisfactory standard of maintenance.
- Supervise the operation of all machinery and plant in their area and ensure that all plant is properly, safely and gainfully operated. Follow appropriate procedures at all times in respect of plant being hired for various projects.
- Drive plant and machinery as required.
- Undertake all training programmes as required from time to time by the Council.
- Record keeping of project activities such as time sheets, labour and material costs, overall job expenditure and procurement of goods.
- Provision of goods receipting and other purchase documentation to office staff in a timely manner.
- Comply with Meath County Council's procurement policy.
- Proficient in the use of IT equipment for the purposes of using relevant software programmes essential to the operations of crews.
- Comply with waste legislation and other environmental legislation during the course of construction works.
- Liaise with the public, landowners, elected members, An Garda Síochána and other statutory bodies as necessary in a courteous manner.

- Comply with on call and out of hours arrangements as necessary.
- Report, investigate and act on disciplinary matters. Reply in a timely manner to all correspondence and requests for reports.
- Investigate complaints, write clear and accurate reports, keep records and photographs of issues that may give rise to a potential public liability claim.
- Undertake such work as may be assigned by the Council from time to time. Such work can sometimes fall outside the normal duties, areas of operation and outside normal working hours.
- To participate fully in any initiatives aimed at increasing quality of service and customer satisfaction.

The above specification is not intended to be a comprehensive list of all duties involved and consequently, the post holder may be required to perform other duties as appropriate to the post which may be assigned to them from time to time and to contribute to the development of the post while in office.

The Foreman will also be designated as an acting GSS in their assigned crew during periods of absence of their GSS/SGSS, in line with the Council's Acting-Up Policy.

Selection Process

The Selection Process may include the following:

- Short-listing of candidates on the basis of the information contained in their application;
- Preliminary interview, which may also include a presentation;
- Completion of an online questionnaire;
- Competitive interview, which may also include a presentation;

- Work sample/role play/media exercise, and any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate.

\ Please note that Meath County Council reserves the right to hold any part of the selection process by way of remote/video-call platform or other appropriate methodology.*

Before you Proceed

Before proceeding with this phase of the selection process you should satisfy yourself that you meet the minimum qualification criteria for the post as set out above. This will prevent you from incurring unnecessary expense in progressing in the competition.

Submission of Application Form

Applicants are invited to submit application forms in order to apply for the position. Application forms are available on Meath County Council's website. The information submitted on the application form will then be used to shortlist applications. There is no requirement to submit evidence of education / experience at this point.

Applications must be made on the official application form and all sections must be completed in full. While completing the application form, accuracy is essential. All forms must be clearly legible and in electronic format.

Application forms, once submitted, will be checked to ensure that they meet the required minimum criteria for the position. If your application form does not meet the minimum qualifications for the post as set out in this booklet then your application will be deemed invalid and you will not be permitted to proceed any further in the selection process.

Short-Listing

Meath County Council reserves the right to shortlist applications. The shortlisting process may take the form of either a desktop shortlisting process based on the information contained in the application forms or a shortlisting interview.

The information you supply in the application form will play a central part of the shortlisting process. Meath County Council's decision to include you on the shortlist of candidates going forward to the next stage of the process may be determined based on this information.

Where, by reason of the number of persons seeking admission to the competition and the standard of knowledge, training or experience in general of such persons, Meath County Council considers that it would be reasonable not to admit all the persons to the competition, Meath County Council may admit to the competition only persons who appear likely to attain in the competition a standard sufficient for selection and recommendation for appointment.

You will be contacted in relation to any interview dates and times. You may also be contacted in relation to the requirement to complete an online questionnaire should this be included in the selection process. The onus is on you to attend for interview on the dates and times allocated. Alternative dates and times cannot be facilitated. When attending for interview you must produce photographic identification when registering your attendance at the Human Resources Department.

Interview Stage

The interview is your opportunity to give evidence of your knowledge, skills and experience and the Local Authority's opportunity to assess your suitability for the role as advertised.

The admission of a person to a competition, or invitation to attend an interview, is not to be taken as implying that Meath County Council is satisfied that such person fulfils the requirements of the Regulations or is not disqualified by law from holding the position and does not carry a guarantee that your application will receive further consideration. It is important therefore for you to note, the onus is on you to ensure that you meet the eligibility requirements for the competition before attending for interview. If you do not meet these essential entry requirements but nevertheless attend for interview you will be putting yourself to unnecessary expense, as Meath County Council will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred.

Meath County Council may at its discretion require candidates to attend a preliminary interview in which case admission to the competitive interview would be conditional on candidates reaching such a standard as Meath County Council considered appropriate in the preliminary interview.

Interviews shall be conducted by Board(s) set up by Meath County Council. The Board(s) will assess the merits of candidates (except insofar as they are assessed otherwise) in respect of matters referred to in the prescribed Qualifications and any other relevant matters. Only candidates who reach such a standard as Meath County Council considers satisfactory in the competitive interview shall be considered for selection and placed on a panel. The onus is on all applicants to make themselves available for interview.

Key Competencies

Candidates will be assessed at interview under the following competencies. The candidates at the interview will be questioned on at least some of the indicators listed below under each competency.

Relevant Experience – Range and Depth (including Knowledge of Health &amp; Safety)
Communication &amp; Interpersonal Skills (to include Customer Service Experience)
Supervisory Experience &amp; Team Skills
Organisational Skills &amp; Record Keeping
Initiative &amp; Flexibility

Candidates must achieve a minimum 50% of the total marks available in each of the competencies outlined above at interview in order to meet the qualifying standard.

Pre-Employment Checks

Before contracts of employment are entered into, various checks are undertaken. These include medicals, references and may include Garda Vetting. The Council will invite those successful candidates who accept an offer to fill a vacancy to attend a medical assessment. References for successful candidates will also be checked and Garda Vetting, if necessary, will be completed at this point.

3. A third party must not impersonate a candidate at any stage of the process. If a person found guilty of such an offence was or is a candidate in a recruitment process, then:
  - Where s/he has not been appointed to a post, s/he will be disqualified as a candidate
  - Where s/he has been appointed subsequent to the recruitment process in question, s/he shall forfeit that appointment.
4. The admission of a person to the competition, or invitation to undertake any element of the selection process is not to be taken as implying that Meath County Council is satisfied that such a person fulfils the essential requirements.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Who can I contact if I have a query in relation the Recruitment Campaign?

If you are unclear in relation to any aspect of the recruitment and selection process, please read the briefing document and frequently asked questions carefully before contacting Meath County Council's Human Resources Department. If you still need to contact the Human Resources Department please send your query via email in the first instance to recruit@meathcoco.ie.

2. What happens if I cannot attend a particular stage of the competition?

The onus is on you to attend for all stages of the recruitment competition at the locations, dates and times notified. Meath County Council cannot change dates and times of any particular stage of the process.

3. I have submitted my application form. What happens next?

Meath County Council will carry out an eligibility check on all application forms to ensure that they meet the minimum qualifications for the post. You do not need to contact the HR Department. If you do not meet the minimum eligibility requirements for the post based on the information submitted on your application form, you will not be invited to interview.

Depending on the number of candidates remaining at this stage of the competition it may be necessary to hold a short listing process. The shortlisting process may take the form of either a desktop shortlisting process based on the information contained in the application forms or a shortlisting interview/assessment. You will be contacted by email in relation to any interview dates and times. The onus is on you to attend for interview on the dates and times allocated. Alternative dates and times cannot be facilitated. When attending for interview you must produce photographic identification when registering your attendance at the Human Resources Department.

4. What happens on completion of the shortlisting process?

Meath County Council will contact all applicants advising them of the results of the shortlisting process. If you have been successful at this stage you will be invited for a final interview.

5. What happens after undertaking the final interview?

If you qualify at final interview stage you will be placed on a panel and ranked in order of merit. Vacancies may be filled from this panel as they arise and in order of merit. Please note that being placed on a panel is not a guarantee that you will be appointed to the position.

6. How will Meath County Council communicate with me throughout the Recruitment and Selection Campaign?

Meath County Council will contact you when necessary at each stage of the competition by email.

It is strongly recommended that you do not change your email address in the course of this recruitment campaign, as any email will be sent to the email address originally supplied with your application form. It is important to note that the email address you provide when submitting your application form must be one that you can access at all times.

The onus is on the applicant to inform the Human Resources Department of any change in postal address, email address or mobile telephone number throughout the recruitment and selection campaign. This can be done by emailing recruit@meathcoco.ie

The onus is on each applicant to ensure that s/he is in receipt of all communication from Meath County Council. Meath County Council accepts no responsibility for communication not accessed or received by an applicant.
